JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons on Count One of the Indictment for a term of thirty-three (33) months. The court recommends that defendant be placed at a correctional facility in Southern California.

Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of two (2) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. Defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

6. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
7. Defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. Defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: the United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Room 600, Los Angeles, California 90012.
8. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. All fines are waived as the court finds that defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon motion by the government, all remaining counts of the Indictment asserted against defendant are dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
